A NEW ENTERPRISE.

The Cushman & Clark Creamery Now in Full Blast.

It is not generally known that a new enterprise of great importance to the dairy interest has been started in the suburbs of Hopkinsville. Messrs. P. A. Cushman, J. O. Cushman and J. M. Clark some time ago purchased the 20 acre grove on the Fairview pike, just outside of the city limits, formerly occupied by Gunn & Savage's apiary. The lot is adapted in every way for creamery purposes, having two excellent springs of pure water and a dry cave in the hillside near by which could be utilized for storing and keeping butter in dull seasons.

A suitable house has been built and the most improved machinery put in the entire plant costing something like $4,000. Operations were begun on Nov. 1, with the firm's own cows, about 30 in number. The creamery is now running on a small scale, but its capacity is about 1,200 pounds of milk in ten hours. The milk is taken fresh from the cows and placed in a large box-shaped tank. It is then conducted into an open steamer where it is heated to a temperature of from 75 to 80 degrees. It is then ready for the separator, into which it is turned and by a wonderful piece of mechanism the cream is separated from the milk and both escape through different pipes. The cream is placed in a large tank with a cooling bottom and left until placed in the churn. The skimmed milk is placed upon the market in this city, being sold at a reduced rate that makes it in great demand. Every other day the cream is churned by an immense machine for the purpose and is then worked by machinery and packed ready for market.

The price is regulated by the Butter Board of Trade of Elgin, Ill., and rarely falls below 25 cents per pound. When under full operation the firm expects to make from 40¢ to 50¢ pounds daily, though only 40 pounds a day is now being made.

The creamery will buy either milk or cream from any one who has it for sale, or will make butter from the fresh milk for 4¢ cents per pound, returning the skimmed milk, butter-milk and butter to the customer. Messrs. Cushman & Clark are confident that they will build up a large business. The creamery is being conducted by Andrew Sands, an experienced man in the business.

The great Louisville-Cincinnati tobacco deal has been closed. The syndicate agrees to place all the stock remaining after the tobacco growers and warehousemen have taken what they wish. We do not think the "growers" will want any exorbitant amount of the stock. The tobacco warehouses of Hopkinsville, Mayfield and Paducah have been left out of the big combine, and they have set to work to either fight the Louisville and Cincinnati concern, or compel it to recognize them.—Caldwell Courier.

Syrup of figs.

THE MEETING FRIDAY NIGHT.

At the conference meeting held at the Court House Friday night, an agreement was arrived at that security and peace in the party ranks and the threatened disruption was averted. The meeting was organized by the election of Mr. Nat. Gaither, Chairman, and Mr. J. Sol Fritz Secretary.

Mr. Meacham briefly explained the steps he had taken as Chairman of the Democratic Committee to organize for the coming campaign. The Auxiliary Committee appointed was chosen with special reference to work and they had been engaged in the work assigned them for several weeks. He had simply done what he thought to be his duty and was satisfied that he had not acted without authority. He had consulted with Messrs. Brown and Dalton in an informal manner about the committee for their districts. The only reason he did not consult with the other committeemen, Mr. Wood, was because Mr. Perry had volunteered to organize the third ward, the one in his district, early in the fall. He disclaimed any intention to treat that gentleman with discourtesy. The appointments were not made to bestow honorary positions, but in some ways great difficulty had been experienced in finding men capable and willing to do the work required. He regretted exceedingly that he did not know that Mr. Wood desired to assist in these troublesome duties.

His right to act in city matters having been disputed, the question had been referred to the Chairman of the State Central Committee. That official had replied by wire, sustaining him fully and the telegram was read, which was as follows:

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 14.

CHAS. M. MEACHAM:

Yourself and other resident committeemen constitute your City Executive Committee, of which you are chairman. If the Democrats of Hopkinsville desire the Committee to be made larger, the number will be increased, say one additional from each voting precinct. The Central Committee urges the importance of continued party organization and party harmony.

JNO. B. CASTLEMAN, Chairman.

Mr. Meacham closed by expressing a desire for harmony and a willingness to leave the matter of endorsing his efforts to the good sense of the people.

Mr. Wood then made a lengthy explanation of his side of the controversy. He concluded by declaring that he was satisfied with the committee appointed and only objected to it because it had been appointed and not elected and that if the several wards would proceed to elect the same men his opposition would be withdrawn. These views were embodied in a motion which the meeting adopted. The meeting then resolved itself into seven ward meetings, in various portions of the room, and the formality of electing the same committeemen who had been appointed was gone through with. This action brought about the much desired harmony the meeting was trying to secure and the two wings of the party have flapped together and will make a united pull for victory.

The primaries will be of course go ahead on the 25th as ordered. The city organization now stands as follows:

CITY EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

Chas. M. Meacham, Chairman, District No. 2.

Hunter Wood, District No. 3.

M. D. Brown, District No. 1.

Geo. D. Dalton, District No. 4.

CITY AUXILIARY COMMITTEE.

They Come to Time.

It gives us much pleasure to state that we have given your system a thorough trial, and find it the best method of bringing a certain class of customers to time that we have ever seen.

In the last thirty days we have collected over $225.00 that was considered almost worthless, while we are bringing to time other claims that have been considered uncollectible. We feel assured that no house, whether retail or wholesale, can afford to be without this system.

A Lucky Lady.

MILAN, TENN., Sept. 23.—Mrs. W. Combs, of Humboldt, Tenn., a former resident of this place, has recently fallen heir to half a million dollars left by her Scotch grandfather. She has forwarded proof of her relationship to the lawyers and will receive her inheritance to day.—Evening Mail and Express, New York, Sept. 23, 1890.

We are Mrs. Combs' lawyers and by her seeing our advertisement became the agents of her good fortune. We have a number of similar claims in our hands and expect to gain them. If your ancestors came from the old country write us and enclose 25 cents for reply. There are more than half a billion dollars in Great Britain alone unclaimed, which rightly belong to people in the United States.

CREAM OF NEWS.

The Profit Trial Postponed.

The case of John Proffitt, charged with cutting and wounding with intent to kill Jno. Ward, was called before Judge Brown, Saturday. Proffitt, through his attorneys, waived examination, and was admitted to bail in the sum of $150, for his appearance at the March term of Circuit Court, to answer any indictment that might be found against him. Mr. Ward was present with his witnesses and all were recognized to appear before the next grand jury.

The Cow-catchers Were Smashed.

What might have been a fatal collision was narrowly averted at Allensville Thursday morning last by the timely action of an engineer. Nos. 1 and 4, north and south bound express trains, met at that point. The south-bound train had arrived but failed to side track, when No. 4 came thundering in. Owing to the dense fog the engineer of the moving train did not see his danger until within about thirty yards of the other engine. He reversed his engine and applied the air brake to its full capacity, which greatly slackened the speed before the collision. No one was hurt, but all were well shaken up. The track was torn up for some distance and the two trains were delayed each about five hours. Several persons from this city were passengers on the north-bound train, among them Mr. W. A. Wilgus and Mrs. J. H. Durando.

After the Fountain Money.

The City Council met one night last week and took steps to secure the $2,000 bequest of Mrs. M. N. Roach to erect a public fountain in the city. The will was probated in May '89, but the money has never been paid over by the executor, Judge J. I. Landess. The Board instructed the City Clerk to make formal demand for the money. Judge Landess wants the city to provide a supply of water before he turns over the money, although the evident intention of Mrs. Roach was to provide a completed fountain, including well, pump and hydrant. In the event the money is not appropriated within two years, it becomes a part of the residuum of her estate and goes to Judge Landess and two other heirs, her nieces.

If Your House is on Fire

You put water on the burning timber, but the smoke. And if you have catarrh you should attack the disease in the blood, not in your nose. Remove impure cause, and the local effects subside. To do this, take Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier, which radically and permanently cures catarrh. It also strengthens the nerves. Be sure to get only Hood's Sarsaparilla.

MATRIMONIAL.

McKee Smith—Mr. Percy McKee and Miss Julia H. Smith were married at the Episcopal church at 4:30 p. m., Sunday, Rev. J. W. Venable officiating. The happy couple left on the 5:17 train for Clarksville. They left Clarksville yesterday morning on a bridal tour South and will be absent several days. The bride is a cousin of Mrs. Jno. W. Poff, of this city, and has been on a visit to her for several months, her home being in Charleston, S. C. Mr. McKee is an industrious and upright young business man, and his many friends wish for them a long and prosperous journey through life.

Lawson-Gouhot—Mr. Walter Lawson and Miss Jennie Gouhot were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the residence of Mr. Henry C. Ballard, Sunday afternoon, Rev. G. W. Lyon securely tying the nuptial knot in his usual impressive manner. The contracting parties have the best wishes of many friends in their wedded life.

Weeks-Wallace—Mr. W. B. Weeks, of Paducah, and Miss Willie Wallace, of this city, will be married at the residence of Mr. R. H. DeVore on Monday morning at 9 o'clock. Rev. S. N. Vail will perform the ceremony. Mr. Weeks is well-known in this city, having represented Ragon Bros., of Evansville, Ind., for several years in this territory, and has a host of friends who will learn with pleasure of his proposed entrance into the matrimonial ranks. Miss Wallace, the prospective bride, is a young lady of much beauty and rare attainments, and the general verdict will be that Mr. Weeks has secured a worthy prize in his selection.
